Where: Bentonville's Low Water Bridge Campground, Indian Hollow Road (Route 613 off Route 340) Bentonville, Virginia 540-635-7277

When: Saturday July 19, 2008. 5:00 – 9:00 PM (camp overnight for free if you wish)

Why: Support Shenandoah Riverkeeper

Come celebrate our river and the recovery of the fishery at a party hosted by Shenandoah Riverkeeper® on the banks of the South Fork and in the shadow of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Our valley's very own bluegrass band "Briery Branch" will play until night and lay down some tunes. Fourteen nationally known smallmouth bass fishing guides are sponsoring the event, participating that morning in a catch and release fishing contest and partying all night long, in alphabetical order: John Coleman, Bob Cramer (member of Briery Branch), John Hayes, William Heresniak, Jeff Kelble (your Shenandoah Riverkeeper), Brian Kelly, Mark Kovach, Chuck Kraft, Duncan McGrath, Jeff Murray, LE Rhodes, , Britt Stoudenmire, Brian and Colby Trow, Dusty Wismath,. Come mingle at the party with these boys. Buy a ticket and get a yearly membership free.

Options for the Day:

1. Come at 5:00 PM and stay until the party ends at 9:00 PM
2. Come early and arrange a canoe trip on your own with Downriver Canoe (800-338-1963) or Front Royal Canoe (800-270-8808), then come to the party at 5:00 PM
3. Come and camp. I have reserved a large portion of the campground, so you can come as early as 11:00 AM to set up your tent. Then fish, canoe, swim or just hang around until the party starts at 5:00 PM. Camping is free Saturday night for ticket holders
